Introduced with Great Success by Sergt. George "Doddy" Connor of Camp Devens

It's A Grand Old Flag To Fight For

—March Song—

Lyric by John H.C.Fraser

Music by Duncan E.MacPherson

Published By MAC PHERSON & FRASER
CLINTON, MASS.

IT'S A GRAND OLD FLAG TO FIGHT FOR

Words by JOHN H.G. FRASER

Music by
DUNCAN E. MACPHERSON

Tempo di Marcia ff
Not too fast
The U. S. A. is in the fray and a lit - tle while will The kai-ser thinks our yan-kee lads will not a-mount to Till ready Slower pp p do, To show the Ger-mans man-y things of war they nev-er knew. A - cross the sea our much, But when our boys go "o - ver the top" he'll find that he's in Dutch. Lib - er - ty and sons will be, in the fight for freedom's cause, A - gainst the vi - o - lat-ers of all in - ter-nat-ional laws.
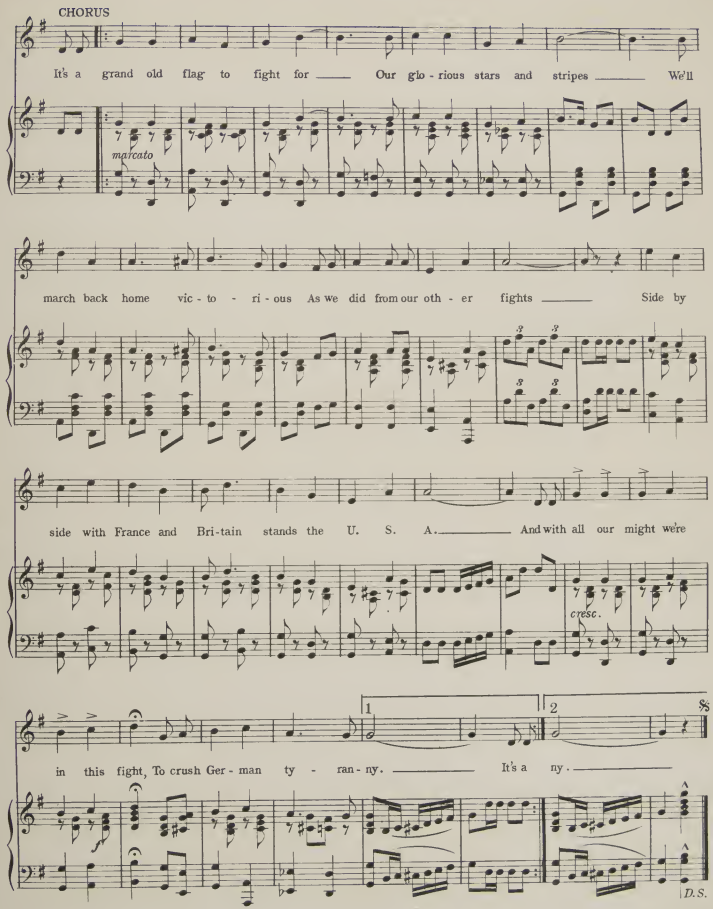
free-dom do not mean a thing to him, He'll may-be change his mind tho' when we march in - to Ber - lin.

Copyright, 1918, by MacPherson & Fraser



CHORUS
It's a grand old flag to fight for ___ Our glo - rious stars and stripes ___ We'll marcato march back home vic - to - ri - ous As we did from our oth - er fights ___ Side by side with France and Bri-tain stands the U. S. A. ___ And with all our might we're cresc.
in this fight, To crush Ger - man ty - ran - ny. ___ It's a ny. ___
1
2
D.S.

Press of Louis H. Ross